They must also include a photocopy of their national identity document in force or such other official document in place generally accepted for these purposes.
- ii) In the case of shareholders who are legal entities: corporate name, tax ID number, address and e-mail address from which they will connect to the general shareholders meeting, as well as the full name, tax ID number and address of its representative. They must also include a photocopy of the document accrediting the legitimacy of the representation and of the representative's national identity document in force or such other official document in place generally accepted for these purposes.

In both cases, the necessary documentation must be submitted as to prove their shareholder status with the aim of cross-checking that information with the list of shareholders and the number of shares provided by Iberclear for the general meeting.

Shareholders, or their proxies, wishing to attend the meeting through telematics means must cast their vote on the proposed resolutions relating to items included in the agenda in accordance with sections 5.2. and 5.3. below. It shall be understood that shareholders who attend the meeting through telematics means without having indicated their vote prior to the general meeting, vote in favour of all the proposed resolutions included in the agenda and submitted by the board of directors.

With regards to all matters not expressly provided for in this announcement, the same rules on voting and passing of resolutions applicable to shareholders attending in person shall apply to shareholders attending through telematics means.

Once the communication has been received, the Company shall register it and shall send to the e-mail address provided, the link and password together with the corresponding instructions for the telematic connection to the general meeting.

(C) Intervention, information and proposal

In the event that the shareholder or his proxy representative wants his intervention to be transcribed in the minutes of the meeting, this must be expressly stated in the text of the intervention.

Requests for information or clarifications from shareholders or their proxy representatives attending the general meeting through telematics means may be answered verbally during the general meeting and, in any case, in writing within 7 days following the meeting.

(D) Other considerations

It is the sole responsibility of the shareholder, or its proxy representative, to safeguard the password to attend the general meeting through telematics means. In the case of a legal entity, the entity must notify any modification or revocation of the powers held by its representative and, therefore, the Company declines any responsibility until such notification is made.

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the mechanisms of assistance through telematics means, when technical or security reasons so require. The Company shall bear no responsibility for any damages that may be caused to the shareholder as a result of breakdowns, overloads, fallen power lines, connection failures, technology incompatibilities or any other eventuality of the same or a similar nature, beyond the Company's control, that may prevent or affect the use of the telematic assistance mechanisms

5. PROXY AND REMOTE VOTING

5.1. Proxy

All shareholders with the right to attend the general meeting may be represented by another person, even if such person is not a shareholder of the Company, meeting the requirements and formalities laid down by the applicable law and the articles of association.

A separate power of proxy representation must be granted individually for this general meeting in writing for all the shares owned by the shareholder by postal delivery (delivered or sent to the Company's registered address) electronic delivery or any other means of remote communication, provided the proxy representation conferred, the identity of the proxy representative and the security of electronic communications is guaranteed, without prejudice to legal provisions applicable to representation by family members or granting of general powers of attorney.

The documents granting proxy representation for the general meeting must include, at least, the following: (i) the date of the general meeting and the agenda; (ii) the identity of the represented shareholder and the proxy; (iii) the number of shares held by the represented shareholder; and (iv) instructions regarding how the votes of the represented shareholder are to be cast with regard to each of the items on the agenda, if appropriate.

If the proxy has been validly granted pursuant to applicable regulations and the internal regulations of the Company but does not include instructions regarding the exercise of the vote or if there is any doubt regarding the identity of the representative or the scope of the representative's power, it shall be understood that (i) the delegation is made to the chairman of the board of directors (or, as the case may be, whoever substitutes as chair of the general meeting); (ii) it refers to all items included on the agenda of the general meeting, (iii) the vote is favourable to all of the resolutions submitted by the board of directors; and (iv) it also covers the off-Agenda items which may arise, with respect to which the proxy shall abstain from voting, unless there are sufficient elements to judge that it would be more favourable to the interests of the represented shareholder to vote in favour or against such proposed resolutions.

Without prejudice to the provisions of the previous paragraphs, in case the proxy representative is in a situation of conflict of interest regarding any of the items included in the agenda or that may be submitted in accordance with the law, and if the shareholder has not given voting instructions for each of those items, the proxy representative shall abstain. In such case, it shall be understood that the represented shareholder has also appointed as successive joint and several representatives the chairman of the general shareholders meeting and, if the chairman is in a situation of conflict of interest, the secretary of the general shareholders meeting and if, in turn, the secretary is also in a situation of conflict of interest, the vice-secretary of the board of directors.

5.2. Remote voting

Shareholders may cast their votes on the proposals included on the agenda prior to the general meeting by postal delivery (delivered or sent to the Company's registered address) or any other means of remote communication, provided the identity of the shareholder who casts its vote and the security of electronic communications is guaranteed.

In order to cast a vote by post, the shareholder must fill in and sign the attendance card in which the shareholder must specify the vote (in favour, against, abstention or blank), marking with a cross the corresponding box in the table which appears on the attendance card. If the shareholder does not mark one or any of the boxes indicating the vote with respect to the items on the agenda, it shall be understood that the shareholder wishes to vote in favour of the respective proposals submitted by the board of directors.

With respect to items not included in the agenda of the meeting but which may be put to vote in the general meeting of shareholders, unless expressly indicated to the contrary, the shareholder shall be deemed to grant proxy in respect of such resolutions to the chairman of the board of directors (or, as the case may be, whoever substitutes as chair of the general meeting), applying the rules on voting and substitution in the event of a conflict of interest established for in case of proxy representation.

5.3. General provisions regarding delegation and remote voting

Valid proxies granted and votes cast by remote means of communication (postal or electronic) must be received by Company before 23:59 hours (CET) on the day immediately prior to the date on which the general meeting is to be held, otherwise the proxy shall be taken not to have been conferred and the vote not to have been cast. After the expiry of this deadline, only votes cast in person at the general meeting by the shareholder or the person validly representing the shareholder will be allowed.

The validity of the proxy representation granted and of the remote vote issued before the general meeting is held will be subject to a check of the status as a shareholder. In case of discrepancy between the number of shares notified by the shareholder granting proxy representation or casting a vote remotely before the general meeting is held and the number which appears in the book entry registry notified by Iberclear, the number of shares notified by Iberclear shall be considered valid for the purposes of quorum and voting, unless proof to the contrary is provided.

The power of proxy representation granted and the vote issued by post or electronically before the general meeting is held may be rendered without effect by express revocation by the shareholder. Such revocation must use the same mean as that used to grant the power of proxy representation or to cast the vote and must be exercised within the established deadline. The rules of precedence between delegation, remote voting and personal voting at the meeting are as follows:

Loose translation for information purposes only. In case of any discrepancy, the Spanish version prevails

- i) The attendance in person at the general meeting of a shareholder or of the representative of the shareholder which is a legal person who has delegated its vote or who has voted remotely before the general meeting is held, whatever the means used to cast the vote, shall cancel such delegation or previous vote.
- ii) In the event that a shareholder grants several proxies or casts several votes, the last proxy or the last vote cast that has been received by the Company within the established term shall prevail.
- iii) As a particular rule, a vote cast by any remote means of communication before the general meeting is held shall cancel any grant of proxy representation made electronically or by means of a printed card, whether prior, in which case it shall be taken to be revoked, or subsequent, in which case it shall be taken not to have been made.
- iv) Both the proxy representation and the vote cast remotely shall lose all effect if, to the Company's knowledge, the shares which carry the attendance rights have been disposed of.

In any case, the Company reserves the right to request from the shareholders or their proxy representatives the additional means of identification deemed appropriate to guarantee the identity of the participants, the authenticity of the vote and, in general, the legality of the acts of the general meeting.

The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the remote voting and proxy delegation mechanisms should technical or security reasons so require or oblige. The Company shall bear no responsibility for any damages which may be caused to the shareholder as a result of breakdowns, overloads, fallen power lines, connection failures, malfunction of the postal service or any other eventuality of the same or similar nature which is beyond the control of the Company, and which prevent the use of the remote proxy delegation and voting mechanisms.

Shareholders who are legal entities and non-Spanish residents should consult the Investor Relations department (abigail@ibi-lion.com) to assess the possibility, if necessary, of adapting, with due guarantees, the mechanisms for remote voting and proxy representation to their peculiarities
